Excerpt: .every time he sits down to satisfy his hunger. Feriwinkleist, this ought to go home to you! Put that pin away! I have spoken about thai pin once already. SPITEFULNESSi Miss Smith has pretty boots, and Mr. Robinson says so; but Miss Brown has not pretty boots. Miss Brown, who has been down at the sea-side some weeks, knows all about the time the tides come in, but she does not tell Miss Smith. Was not that unkind of Miss Brown to treat Miss Smith so, when they are such dear friends and old schoolfellows--all because of what Mr. Robinson said I STBAT PEEBLES. There are some fashions that never change. When they tell you the tide has gone out, don t believe them. If your bootmaker takes a day s excursion to Margate, he is almost sure to return by the last boat....
