Akashic Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 231 pages. Dimensions: 8.1in. x 5.2in. x 0.8in. From Here to Eternity and Thin Red Line, both wartime novels (and major motion pictures), established Jones as one of the greatest American writers of the 20th-century. For this first and only collection of his stories (out of print for more than 15 years), arranged chronologically, James Jones wrote, in addition to a general introduction, individual and very personal prefatory remarks that illuminate his development as a writer over 20 years, beginning in 1947. The 13 penetratingly sensitive, remarkably varied stories are about men, women, and children in circumstances ranging from war to marriage to childhood to courtship. Each story is distinguished by the classical simplicity, emotional resonance, and lasting impact that is the hallmark of the great short-story writer. Brand new introduction by the authors daughter, Kaylie Jones. The James Jones Literary Society will participate in the promotion of this book. Superbly realized stories . . . Personal, vigorous, meaningful. Library Journal We feel the impact of Jones vitality. He is masculine, uninhibited, not abashed by whatever he uncovers of human weakness and sexuality. Chicago Sun-Times The thirteen stories are anything but dated . . . a compact social history of what it was like for Mr. Jones generation to grow up, go to war, marry, and generally, to become people in America. The Nation James Jones (1921-1977) became internationally famous with his first novel, From Here to Eternity, a classic portrayal of Army life in WWII, which won the National Book Award. Over the next 25 years, he wrote 10 more books, both fiction and non-fiction. Kaylie Jones, daughter of James Jones, is the author of four novels, including A Soldiers Daughter Never Cries (also a major film) and Celeste Ascending. This item ships from multiple locations....
