Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 208 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Is there a difference between Roman Catholicism and biblical Christianity? Isn't it just a different way to practice your Christian beliefs? Not quite, contends Dr. Casey Smith. Approaching this centuries-long debate between Protestants and Catholics straightforwardly, The Great Gulf Between Catholicism and Christianity addresses this time-sensitive issue once and for all of truth of religious tradition. Dr. Casey Smith takes a sola scriptura approach to compare the key doctrines of the Catholic faith, like Mariology, confession, penance, and the Eucharist, to the historically verified text of the Scriptures. By supplementing his opinion with testimony of current and ex-Catholic priests, he reveals the peace in a personal relationship with the Savior instead of the anxiety found in penance-earning forgiveness. The Great Gulf Between Catholicism and Christianity challenges readers of all religious traditions to reevaluate all you've been taught in order to ultimately arrive at the light at the end of the tunnel.
