It is rather warm, I confess, the Limpet replied; but it is only for a little time. The floodtide will come soon, and the first wash of spray will revive me. No, no! nothing short of death would induce me to leave my rock. The light glittered through the transparent body of the Prawn, and the Anemone heard him laugh as he moved away. I d rather die than be chained there, he said. What must / do to be kept safe? the Anemone asked. I am so soft and weak that I am sure the storm would soon finish me. I have n t even a shell to guard me. Find a sheltered corner, and cling fast, was the advice of...
