

Off the Map: Lost Spaces, Invisible Cities, Forgotten Islands, Feral Places, and

By Bonnett, Alastair.

Aurum. 1 Paperback(s), 2014. soft. Book Condition: New. From forgotten enclaves to floating islands, from hidden villages to New York City gutter spaces, this book charts some of the most remarkable yet least known locations on the planet. And while these are not necessarily places you would choose to visit on holidayHoby, the pirate capital of Somalia, or Zheleznogorsk, a secret military town in Russia, they each carry a story about the strangeness of place, a concept that continues to enthrall us in a world that is not quite as exhaustively mapped as Google Earth might make it seem. Alastair Bonnett, a professor of social geography, also explains how topophilia, the love of place, is a fundamental part of what it is to be human. 310.

Reviews

I just began reading this pdf. It is actually written in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
