Excerpt: .he explored deeper waters and caught larger fish. This man was not a monopolist and owed no poorer neighbors an apology for having better means of locomotion than they. It has grown to be the habit of the unsuccessful to class all people who possess comforts and convenAre You Alive? 131 iences in one mass with the idle, selfish, and oftentimes dishonest, rich. There are millionaires who came by their wealth through criminal methods. There are capitalists who grind the poor and wrong their fellow men. But it is well to remember that there are also honest, noble, unselfish people with fortunes, and capitalists who are a blessing to the world, to the laboring classes and to humanity. No more unjust and absurd idea ever existed than that mistaken impression of the very poor that all rich or even comfortable people are their enemies...
