St. Clair-Tisdall s The Conversion of Armenia to the Christian Faith looks at the process that brought about the crucial religious changes in the modern country. From the preface: DURING the last few years the world has witnessed a terrible spectacle. We have seen a Christian nation in Asia, of the same Aryan blood as ourselves, suffering the most cruel wrongs at the hands of the Turks and their confederates, the Kurds. We have seen members of this Christian nation, men and women and little children, massacred in tens of thousands, and our illustrated papers have presented us with photographic views of some of these terrible scenes. We have read of large numbers dying a martyr s death rather than embrace Islam, and have heard of those who had less courage and faith being driven at the point of the sword to repeat the creed of the Arabian Antichrist. We have beheld something more strange still - the Christian nations of Europe hampered in their endeavours to put a stop to this state of things by their...
