Not illustrated. 1875 Excerpt: .regarding the means employed in the management of our Fair, etc., much might be said. This much, however, may not be out of place, that the officers, owing to the liberal premiums offered, made extra exertions to have it a financial success, but by having a series of trots every day, admitting several wheels of fortune, and chartering a balloon, which, on attempting to go up, bust up, caused a great deal of dissatisfaction. It was a financial success, however, and the liberal premiums offered brought out the best show of stock we have ever had in the county. President--John Milt Epler, Little Indian. Vice-President--P.
